ADVERTISING INTERNSHIP INFORMATION

If you successfully complete all of the requirements of an approved internship while concurrently enrolled in ADPR 5010 (Advertising Internship), you can earn up to three (3) college elective hours of credit.

WHO MAY TAKE AN INTERNSHIP FOR ACADEMIC CREDIT?

Students enrolled in the Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication who have satisfactorily completed (grade C- or better) ADPR 3100, 3110 and 3120.

HOW AND WHERE DO I GET AN INTERNSHIP APPROVED?

Submit the request form, the internship offer letter, and signed Policy Memorandum to your department head prior to enrolling in ADPR 5010 and in advance of beginning work on the internship. The number of credits for the internship on your advisement form must agree with the number of hours you are requesting on your approval form. You must present your advisement form in order to obtain a POD for this course.

HOW MANY CREDITS CAN I EARN?

An internship may be taken for variable credit based on the number of hours that the student works during the semester. Students may earn between one and three hours of internship credit:

320 hours = 3 credits

214 hours = 2 credits

107 hours = 1 credit

Credits or hours given for internship may not be increased or decreased once the internship has started. ADPR 5010 is repeatable for up to a total of 3 credit hours.

HOW DO I GET THE CREDIT?

After approval by your department head, enroll in ADPR 5010 (Advertising Internship) for the semester you will be performing the internship. Before the internship begins, the department head must receive the letter from your employer offering you the internship. Your employer must complete an online survey as a report of your performance by the last day of class and you must submit your final report and evaluation before a grade can be given.

ARE THERE ANY OTHER REQUIREMENTS?

Compile a week-by-week report (in complete paragraph form) of your work during the internship. Submit the typed final report along with your evaluation of the internship to your department head on or before the last day of the semester. You can email this to Ms Donna Leblond at dleblond@uga.edu.

WHERE DOES ADPR 5010 FIT INTO OUR CURRICULUM?

It will be counted as 1 to 3 variable hours of the 30 hours of Grady coursework required for your Advertising degree. Specifically, it will be used towards your 6hrs of required Grady Electives. Grades will be recorded on your official transcript as satisfactory or unsatisfactory (S or U) and are not included in your grade point average. The most logical use of the internship is 3 hours because it satisfies a college elective requirement. However, if you initially take 1 or 2 hours of credit, it is repeatable for a sum total of 3 hours of credit. If you have completed your Grady electives, internship credit may count in your general electives or if you are within the 40-hour journalism and mass communication course rule.

MAY I RECEIVE DUAL CREDIT FOR ONE INTERNSHIP?

NO! A student will not be awarded credit for ADPR 5010 if credit is received from another department, school or college for the same internship.

HOW DO I FIND AN INTERNSHIP?

Through notices posted on Grady listservs, through your own efforts, by inclusion in the internship section of the Employment Prospectus and through the Career Consultant for Grady College in Career Services, Clark Howell Hall.

This is a supervised internship; it is a course designed to move you out of the classroom and into on-the-job training. You will be working for a real employer, using the tools and insights you have acquired in your classroom work and, presumably, acquiring new tools and insights as a fledgling professional.

Obviously, there is no text, and you will not be expected to attend regular classes because your workplace is your classroom. You will be expected to meet certain requirements over and above satisfactory performance at work, however, in order to receive course credit:

1. Your internship must be APPROVED PRIOR to the beginning of the semester. NO internship can be approved for credit until you have completed and submitted the "REQUEST FOR APPROVAL" form and until your employer has submitted a letter to my office offering you the internship. Once approved, you will be given a POD for the internship course.
2. Enroll in ADPR 5010 for the number of approved hours. Remember that you are receiving course credit and will have to pay UGA tuition, etc.
3. Email to Ms Leblond, dleblond@uga.edu, by the last day of classes for the semester a typed, week-by-week final report (in complete paragraph form) of your activities as an intern, including work samples if you are able.
4. Email to Ms Leblond, dleblond@uga.edu, by the last day of classes for the semester a typed self-evaluation of what you learned at your internship. This should be reflective and can be whatever format you are comfortable with.
5. Your employer must submit via the evaluation link they are emailed, also no later than the last day of classes for the semester, a complete evaluation of your performance. Because I expect your employer to be completely candid about your performance, this online survey will be considered a confidential communication with the college.

Remember this date: The last day of classes for the semester is the deadline for submission of your report and evaluation and your employer's online evaluation

You will receive either a "Satisfactory" or an "Unsatisfactory" grade. There are no A, B, C, D, or F grades in this course. Incompletes are issued when all materials are not received by the last day of classes.

I may visit those of you who are located within reasonable traveling range and, in some cases, some of you who may be quite distant from us. Those whom I cannot visit personally may be contacted by telephone. In the meantime, however, do not hesitate to telephone or write if you have any questions or problems.

I hope this will be as pleasant and productive a learning experience for you as it has been for hundreds of your predecessors, and I trust that your work will reflect as favorably on the Grady College as has the work of those who preceded you.
