---

Academic Rank/Salary

Assistant Professor. Salary competitive.

Responsibilities

The assistant professor must have a teaching and research concentration in, and a commitment to, mass communication and journalism. We seek excellence in scholarship befitting a major research institution and expertise in visual journalism, especially, but not limited to, photojournalism and multimedia journalism.

Qualifications

A PhD or MFA in mass communication or a related field expected by the time of hire, and required within nine months of hire. Evidence and strong promise of sustained research productivity required, as is the ability to mentor and direct graduate students. A minimum of 5 years of professional experience in journalism is preferred.

Application Materials and Deadline

Applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vita, and the names, addresses and phone numbers of three references to: <http://facultyjobs.uga.edu/postings/2262>. We encourage candidates with diverse backgrounds to apply. Screening of applications will begin October 15, 2017, and will continue until the position is filled. Questions may be directed to the search committee chair, Dr. Barry Hollander (barry@uga.edu).
