Faculty Positions in Advertising
The Department of Advertising and Public Relations in the Grady College at the University of Georgia invites applications for two tenure-track positions in advertising to begin August 2018.

Joining the AdPR Department at Grady means being part of a dynamic program at a Research I university with award-winning faculty and students. The program has many industry partners, a virtual reality lab and a state-of-the-art social media-monitoring lab. The proximity to Atlanta, a major media market and technology hub, is a plus.

Academic Rank/Salary
Assistant Professor. Appointments will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Salary competitive.

Responsibilities
Candidates must have a teaching and research concentration in and commitment to advertising as an academic enterprise. A successful candidate must have a thorough grounding in theory, research, and practice and exhibit the ability to teach a range of undergraduate and graduate courses in advertising and related topics, particularly courses such as advertising media planning, digital advertising, social media analytics, advertising research, and/or campaign planning.

Qualifications
Ph.D. in communication or related field required. Sustained evidence or strong promise of research productivity required. Ability to mentor and direct graduate students also required.

Application Deadline
Screening of applications will begin October 16, 2017 and continue until positions are filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vita, and the names, addresses and phone numbers of three references to: http://facultyjobs.uga.edu/postings/2626.

Applicants should direct questions to: Dr. Karen W. King, Advertising Search Committee Chair, Department of Advertising & Public Relations at kwking@uga.edu
