OTHER GRADY COLLEGE or COGNATE ELECTIVE COURSES (3-6 Credit hours)

Other Grady College graduate courses include JRMC 7000s or 8000s level courses, ADPR 7000s level courses, or EMST 6000s or 7000s level courses. Cognate courses are any graduate-level courses outside of Grady College. This is your chance to take graduate courses in other programs, such as the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, the Terry College of Business, the School of Public and International Affairs, the School of Law, the College of Public Health, the Odum School of Ecology, and the College of Family and Consumer Sciences. Cognate courses must be at the 6000-level or higher.

You must take, at minimum, Grady College or Cognate elective two graduate-level courses (3 credit hours each).

Course one _____
Course two _____

Additional Things to Know

- All Grady College graduate courses are 3 credit hours, while GRSC (GradFIRST) is 1 credit hour.
- It is permissible to take multiple sections of special topics courses, such as “JRMCMC 8350: Special Topics in Journalism,” if the sections have different titles and cover different topics.
- On occasion, some Grady College graduate courses may be offered online. This is particularly true for Maymester and summer courses. Online courses have an “e” at the end of the course number (e.g., JOUR 7320e). For credit purposes, an online course is considered the same as its in-person version.
- You may not count the undergraduate version of a split-level or cross-listed class for graduate credit (e.g., if you were enrolled in JOUR 5190 in the split-level course JOUR 5190/7190, you would receive undergraduate credit). At the same time, you may count the graduate version of a split-level or cross-listed class for graduate credit (e.g., if you were enrolled in JOUR 7190 in the split-level course JOUR 5190/7190, you would receive graduate credit). Also, to be clear, if you completed a particular split-level class for undergraduate credit (e.g., JOUR 5190), you may not complete the graduate version (e.g., JOUR 7190) for graduate credit.
- All 9000-level courses require permission of your advisor for enrollment.
